TO EVERYBODY IN MASON COUNTY

The large requirements of the Government, makes it imperative for every citizen of Maysville and Mason County to make a subscription to the second Liberty Loan.
If you have not the money, any of the banks will loan you the money, to pay your part. No man should expect some other man to meet his obligation—the other man has all he can do to meet his part—the time is short—act at once—UNLESS YOU WANT TO SEE THE LOAN A FAILURE.

BITTEN ON LEG

Col. Jess Calvert of Forest avenue was the victim of either a snake or a spider that has given him a very ugly looking leg. The other day while out in the orchard at his country place he was stung by whatever kind of animal it was, and upon arrival at home his leg was badly swollen and inflamed, causing him much pain. Whatever it was that bit him it has caused his leg to get into bad shape and the services of a doctor are rendered necessary.

There was a heavy falling of snow for a few minutes early this morning.

MASON CIRCUIT COURT

C. F. Rhodes, Sam Perrine and H. C. Sharp were appointed commissioners to select grand and petit jurors, to serve for one year.

In the case of Mary A. Marks against M. F. Coughlin & Co., the jury awarded the plaintiff damages in the sum of $75.

George Clark, convicted of breaking into a freight car, and Charles Nagle, convicted of grand larceny, were brought into court and it was ordered by Judge Halbert that they be taken by the Sheriff of Mason county to the state penitentiary at Frankfort and there be confined at hard labor for the period of one year.

ASKS $1000 DAMAGES FOR DEATH AND INJURY TO CATTLE

In the Mason Circuit Court yesterday the administrator of William P. Myers, deceased, filed suit for $1000 from the C. & O. railroad for the death of three cows and the injury of several others which were shipped from this city to Danville, Ill., in March of 1916.

MAYSVILLE MEN

Asked to Aid in War Camp Community Recreation Work, Under the Direction of Chamber of Commerce.

At the suggestion of President Wilson the directors of the Maysville Chamber of Commerce have been called on to get their organization behind the campaign to raise a national fund for War Camp Community Recreation work. The purpose of this is to inspire the men, increase the efficiency and help develop the fighting spirit of the American armed forces. Features of this big work include the providing of wholesome, healthy environment in the communities surrounding the ninety or more training camps and posts.

John N. Willis, of Toledo, automobile and aeroplane manufacturer, appointed jointly by Secretary of War Baker and Secretary of the Navy Daniels as chairman of the national committee on the War Camp Community Recreation Fund, has written a letter to each of the following, asking their assistance in this vitally important war work.

Horace J. Cochran.
James H. Hall.
Carl Dodds.
H. C. Sharp.
W. Hall Strode.
James Purdon.
N. S. Calhoun.
A. L. Merz.
Thomas L. Ewan.

The public, it is pointed out, must be made to realize that they must help to win the war. The "first victories" will be won in America, and will depend on the way in which those who stay at home receive, welcome and hearten the men who are ready to bleed and die that democracy may live. The work for the soldiers and sailors in the communities outside the camps, should not be confused with what is being done for their entertainment and recreation by the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. H. A., and in other ways during their leisure hours in camp.

Mr. Willis summarizes the big purpose of the War Camp Community Recreation Fund when he says:

"The spirit of the new American army is to be made in the next few months. Mere numbers do not make an army; millions of soldiers who lack the fighting spirit can retreat without a struggle. The American boys must know that the finest ideals of civilization are in their hands; that the folks at home are living and fighting in their hearts.

"Imagine your boys at a training camp," he says, "where shall he go and what shall he do when off duty? The cities, big and little, adjacent to the camps will do their best; but without the aid of a national fund it will be impossible to supply the equipment and the trained personal service necessary to make a recreation system a thorough success.

"It is planned to furnish enlisted men hospitality in local social circles, to promote wholesome amusement in public places, to supply buildings, swimming pools, etc., and to prevent the exploitation of the boys by commercialized attractions of an undesirable sort."

President Wilson, in a letter which Mr. Willis enclosed with each of his communications, says of the community service:

"The spirit with which our soldiers leave America, and their efficiency on the battle fronts of Europe, will be vitally affected by the character of the environment surrounding our military training camps."

Commenting on the acceptance by Mr. Willis of the national chairmanship of the War Camp Community Recreation Fund, President Wilson said:

"Mr. Fossick tells me that you have agreed to accept the chairmanship of the War Camp Community Recreation Fund, and I am writing to express my appreciation of your willingness to serve, as well as my hopes that the work of you and your colleagues will meet with every success."

"Three Dollars for Each Soldier and Sailor" is the amount required to carry on the work for the next year. This money will be used in a hundred ways, such as building and maintaining clubs for the men, arranging dramatic, movie picture, musical and numerous other forms of entertainment in auditoriums, clubs, schools, churches and private homes; in short, to see to it that the community around the camp is as "near like home" to the men as possible.

WARRANT ISSUED CHARGING MAN WITH SELLING DISEASED MEAT

A warrant was issued in Squire Fred W. Bauer's Court yesterday charging Robert Colburn of the Orangeburg neighborhood with having sold meat of a diseased animal. It is charged that a heifer delivered to the son of Mr. Robert Hill by the First-Standard Bank last Saturday became ill and was left with Mr. Colburn. The heifer died and it is said that Mr. Colburn butchered it and brought the meat to Maysville and offered it for sale.

PART OF HEIFERS PURCHASED FOR HEIFER CLUB ARE DISEASED

It was learned here yesterday that several of the heifers purchased for the boys who compose the First-Standard Bank's Heifer Club are diseased and it was said that some had blackleg. The county authorities have taken steps to inoculate the animals. Several of the boys have already lost their heifers, which is quite a loss to them, as they have to be paid for.

WAKE UP! WAKE UP! WAKE UP! WAKE UP! America Needs Your Help

TO THE MEN AND WOMEN OF MASON COUNTY:

Your country is at war—not a sideshow war or a little Indian campaign, but the greatest war of all times. The fate of the entire human race hangs in the balance. Millions of young men and women of America are joining in devoting their entire service to their country, making huge personal sacrifices for their country's welfare, in many cases risking their lives, and often giving them up, so that the world may be made safe for democracy.

You who stay at home must do your part by lending the Government of the United States a portion of your savings to meet the expenses of the war. This does not involve any risk or loss on your part. You receive for your loan the best security in the world today, United States Government bonds paying yearly interest at 4 per cent. If these bonds are not good nothing in this wide world is good, and you may as well close up shop and quit right now.

This is not a favor we are asking of you, but a duty, and a duty of the most sacred character. If you do not buy liberty bonds now you may be forced to buy German indemnity bonds later on. The choice is obvious to any thinking man or woman. The banks of Mason County desire to arouse the men of our community from their lethargy. The war must be prosecuted to a successful close, and adequate funds must be raised to meet the war expenses of the Government. You, and this means every man or woman with a dollar to spare, should come forward at once without solicitation and lend your extra dollars to the Government.

You are taking no risk, you are granting no favor by so doing, but you are performing a duty that rests on every individual with character enough to warrant the respect of his or her fellow citizens. It is a patriotic duty which every man and woman owes to America, the champion of Liberty against Autocracy. Act today. Buy Liberty Bonds to the extent of your means. Any of the following banks will serve you free of charge.

SCUFF PITCHES GIANTS TO VICTORY—SCORE OF CLUBS NOW 2 AND 2

New York, October 11—By defeating the Chicago Americans here today by the score of 5 to 0, the New York Nationals are traveling westward tonight on even terms with their rivals in struggle for the world's series pennant. Both teams have now won two games and it is thought that the full seven games will have to be played to decide the winner. Schupp, who was knocked out in the second game of the series, staged a comeback and held the White Sox safe at all times. Benny Kauff, who has been somewhat of a disappointment thus far, redeemed himself and broke into the hall of fame by clouting out two home runs. Manager Rowland of the Sox pitched Fieber in the hope that he would duplicate his feat when he opposed Schupp in the second game of the series, but instead of winning he was knocked out of the box in the eighth round, being replaced by Danforth.

The score:
Chicago .....000000000—0 7 0
New York .....000110120—5 10 1
Batteries—New York, Schupp and Rariden; Chicago, Fieber, Danforth and Schalk. Umpires—Klem, O'Laughlin, Evans and Rigler.

SILVER THIMBLES

The "silver thimble" idea seems to be spreading to America. We hear of organizations here and there urging women to give up old silver utensils or jewelry as contributions to war relief funds.

It's an idea imported from England. An appeal of this sort was made there last year. Thimbles were asked for particularly, because almost every English woman, no matter how poor she may be, has a silver thimble. Hundreds of thousands of women, particularly of the middle and lower classes, brought their thimbles, their worn silver spoons, their old silver cuff links and bracelets and other treasures, and tossed them into the melting pot.

The originators of the plan professed great satisfaction over the results. In one year, from the proceeds of this sacrifice, they bought seven automobile ambulances and five motor hospital boats and contributed to various relief funds for disabled soldiers. The silver thimble fund alone amounted to $75,000.

So far as the figures are concerned, however, no sensible American need be greatly impressed by these results. In fact, to any man or woman of genuine business instincts, the procedure looks rather silly.

If women want to melt up treasured trinkets and heirlooms for the sake of sentiment—if they want to give things that they love so that they may feel they are making a real sacrifice—that is fine. But it is certainly not justifiable on the score of business efficiency.

No thimble or spoon or bracelet, even at the present price of silver, is worth half so much when turned into bullion. Melting up such articles is sheer economic waste. In all such enterprises if real effectiveness is wanted, the people concerned had far better give real money. They can better afford to do it, and the proceeds will go much farther.

THE THRIFT CULT

From the various war-economy propaganda a regular thrift litany might be evolved. We're urged to save sugar, because France needs it; to save wheat, because all our allies need it; to save meats, especially beef and pork; to cut down on fats and gasoline and tires and lubricants; to economize on fuel and wool and butter and milk; to eat corn and oats and rye and potatoes and turnips; to put up fruits and vegetables for winter use; to have our old shoes mended and our old clothes sent to the dry-cleaner, and buy garments made for warmth and comfort rather than style; to avoid every sort of conspicuous waste.

It becomes annoying at times. The perpetual reminder to be careful, to be efficient, to conserve, gets on the nerves of people accustomed to unthinking expenditure and consumption. But it's good for us. It's slowly driving into the national consciousness the basic need of thrift at this time of world-wide deprivation.

It's teaching us, too, that we can save without suffering, if we use our brains about it. And it's leading, let us hope, to the formation of a national habit of thrift. If that habit becomes fixed here, as it has long been in France, we can save the total expense of this great and costly war in a few years, and do it without depriving ourselves of anything really essential for our health and efficiency.

The Red Cross will follow the flag.

THIS WOMAN TOLD TO CHOOSE

Between Operation and Death. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Des Moines, Iowa.—"My husband says I would have been in my grave today had it not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered from serious female trouble and the doctors said I could not live one year without an operation. My husband objected to the operation and got me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I soon commenced to get better and am now well and able to do my own housework. I can recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any woman as a wonderful health restorer."—Mrs. BLANCH JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Des Moines.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from highly prized roots and herbs, has for forty years proved its value in such cases. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A RAILROADER'S YARN

Edith Barnard Delano of The Vigilantes

Mike S. runs Number — on the B. & O. An old timer is Mike, and proud of it. Could have had a big job with the Brotherhood any time for years past, but doesn't think he'd enjoy life unless he could see it from a cab window. Might have been G. M. if he'd had more book-learning; but Mike doesn't miss that—plenty of common-sense to make up for it. And he's friends with everybody; calls four railroad presidents by their first names, and they say the Old Man himself asks Mike's advice at times. There's been a good deal of talk lately among the men about those Liberty Bonds, and Mike's a friend of em. He was leaning out of his car window in Camden Station the other day, and another engineer who is known among the boys as something of a tight-wad was leaning out of his, a couple of tracks over.

"Going to buy one of those new Liberty Bonds, Bill?" Mike asked.

"I am NOT," said Bill, so's you couldn't mistake what he meant. "I keep my money in a savings bank. That's good enough for me. How'd I know this country'll win the war? Who'd you reckon will give me back the money on a Liberty Loan Bond, if Germany wins, hey? No sir, I guess the savings bank'll carry me along for a while longer!"

Mike scratched his ear and grinned; he has a catching sort of grin, has Mike. "Bill Edison," said he, "You remind of something that once came to my notice, because I was in it. Must be a matter of thirty years ago, now. I was on my first passenger engine, and a beauty she was, a thunderer for those days, just out of the shops, and I was prouder of her than I was of the twins."

"It was along in the spring some time, and the crews coming east all reported worst flood conditions ever known. I brought my train down over Harper's Ferry when the yellow mud was boiling down underneath like as if all Niagara was let loose. Got so far as Cumberland, and received orders to leave the train there and take my engine back, run her out on the Harper's Ferry bridge and leave her there. Yes, sir, leave her there. I didn't believe those orders were straight until I found out that every other big engine anywhere within reach of the bridge had gotten the same. Well, we did it; the bridge was crumpled full of engines, all the trucks would hold, by night-fall."

"It wasn't until I got back to Baltimore, some days later, after the flood had gone down, that I got wind of the way it happened. John M. King was V. P. in those days, and a better railroad man never lived, bar none. He happened to be in charge at the Central Building right then, and reports of floods kept coming in and coming in, and everybody got more worried. One bridge after another went down, one mile of track after another was washed out. Finally some fellows from the Maintenance of Way rushed in and said the Harper's Ferry bridge would sure be the next to go. King thought a minute, and then gave orders that every heavy engine the bridge would hold should be run out on her and left. They thought King was crazy, but they didn't know him. "Why, Mr. King, there's no use sending all that new rolling stock down with the bridge," said one man; King just gave him a look. "If the Harper's Ferry bridge goes down, son, said he, 'we won't need the rolling stock.'"

"And say, Bill Edison," Mike's hand was on the throttle and he'd got his signal to pull out, "the Harper's Ferry bridge is still standing! I guess she'll carry you and me along for a while longer, hey?"

And the point of the story is that Bill Edison bought a Liberty Bond the next morning.

NEW DRAFT ACT UP AT NEXT CONGRESS

Washington, October 10.—Representative Kahn, of California, the Republican who led the administration forces in the House, when the army draft law was passed, said today a new draft act would have to be passed at the next session of congress to reach the young men who have become 21 years of age since May 18, last, and that it probably would amend the existing law so as to register youths from 16 to 17 to become automatically subject to call on reaching the age of 21.

Mr. Kahn also said he intended to make a fight for a universal training law and an act to deal with alien slackers without violating treaty obligations.

WATCH WILL BE KEPT

On All Suspicious Persons in Vicinity of Camp Zachary Taylor.

Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., October 9.—A systematic search for persons of suspicious character or business, who come into the cantonment dolly or are located near it, was begun today at Camp Zachary Taylor. While there is no indication that arrests will be made or other sensations sprung, it was said by a staff officer a list will be kept of persons believed not in harmony with the Government's war plans.

They will be watched at all times. Hundreds of persons, he said, come to Camp Zachary Taylor every day with military passes, although they have no connection with army members or Government.

At noon today $62,000 had been subscribed by Camp Zachary Taylor soldiers to the liberty bond fund of the Louisville Liberty Loan Legion. One drafted man subscribed $550 for bonds.

Each negro recruit in the First Provisional Negro Battalion bought a bond.

As soon as the Ohio river assumes a normal stage Captain Gordon C. Green will operate a dolly schedule between Portsmouth and Cincinnati, using the Taconia, Chilo, Greendale and Greenwood.

A WORD WITH WOMEN

Valuable Advice for Maysville Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and kidney disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed—Read this Maysville woman's convincing statement:

Miss Dora Edgington, Wood St., Maysville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and from the results received, I have every reason to recommend them. At times, my kidneys have become weak and have been irregular in action. My back has ached, too, and has been very weak and lame across my kidneys. When ever I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for this trouble, they have never failed to relieve the complaint in a short time. I gladly advise anyone to get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Chaslor's Drug Store, if troubled in that way."

Miss Edgington is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Miss Edgington had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. Owing to the fact that today is a holiday in the schools there will be no meeting of the Forest Avenue Parent-Teachers' Association. The next meeting will be held on Friday, October 19, at which time Dr. Townsend, will speak.

Mrs. J. Triplett Maxwell, well known in New York and Washington society, has gone to work in a canning factory in Baltimore to do her "bit" in helping America win the war.

Washington, October 11—Less than seven per cent of the $5,000,000,000 which the government hopes to obtain in subscriptions to the second Liberty Loan had been subscribed at the close of business last night.

Treasury officials made public the actual subscription figures tonight. The total is $325,465,000. This figure includes every dollar reported to the reserve banks from every section of the United States. In one reserve district, however, Minneapolis, no figures were reported.

PATRIOTIC RALLY

Of Mason County Women at Washington Opera House, Sunday, October 14, 2 o'clock P. M.—Your Country Calls.

An American soldier now in France, writes "every man and woman in the United States can play a part in this war. You may discern no relations between what you do every day in the shop or the kitchen and the military task of beating Prussianism; but there is one; for just so fast as you speed up at home, will the army speed up in France. The army in war time is the Nation, and it takes a whole nation to win."

Some people think because they have bought a Liberty Bond, or subscribed to the Red Cross, or even knit a sweater or two, they have done their bit. This is all very good work in its way and heartily to be commended, but the men and women of Mason County, and the women particularly must learn how many other ways there are in which they can help their country, and how urgent are the many needs at present.

On Sunday, October 14th, in the Opera House, at two o'clock the public will be told just what the Government expects its citizens to do, for food conservation—the most imperative call of the Nation just now. It is the duty of every man and woman to come next Sunday afternoon and give their support to this all important, Nation-Wide movement. An interesting program has been arranged and a novel feature has been added which will be sure to please.

Delegates

Each Sunday School in the State is entitled to send three delegates. It is suggested that the pastor, superintendent and one other be these delegates. One extra delegate is allowed for each additional hundred enrolled.

Any Sunday School worker or person interested in Sunday School work, may be a visiting delegate. Visiting delegates have all the privileges of the regular delegates except the right to vote.

Expenses

To the railroad fare from your station, add from $1.50 to $2.50 per day for board and lodging, and $1.00 registration fee. It will be money well invested for either the school or the individual. The railroads do not make any special rates, but in many cases where ten or more people come from the same place at the same time, one ticket can be secured for the entire party at a reduction.

Reservations

It will add to your comfort and help the local people, who are doing a great deal to make your stay in Maysville pleasant, if you will wire Prof. C. E. Dale, Maysville, Ky., now and request reservations for yourself or your party.

The convention is prepared to help every Sunday School and every Sunday School worker in Kentucky. The invitation to attend is extended in the most cordial way. Come, let us study and work together to advance the Kingdom of God.

All who are willing to sing in the chorus at the State Sunday School Convention which is to be held next week are asked to meet at the Baptist Church tonight at 7 o'clock.

HARD ON MA

The Bracken Chronicle says: A well-known young Bracken county farmer, who recently purchased an auto, motored to town Saturday, accompanied by his parents. After transacting their business here, father and son got in the machine and returned home, almost eight miles from town, not until which time did they realize that they had forgotten the wife and mother and left her in Augusta. The son made a hasty trip back to town after his mother.
